

6

weeks before the move

Move your BT services to your new home online

Pick a removal firm and set a date for the move

If you're not using professional removers, arrange for friends to help you

If you rent your home, give your landlord notice

Make sure your possessions are fully insured in transit

Book temporary storage for anything you are not taking with you straight away

Get rid of anything you no longer need on eBay or donate to a charity shop

3

weeks before the move

Start packing non-essential items into boxes

Tell your doctor and dentist if you're moving out of the area

Check your home insurance to make sure you're covered from your move day

Change the address of your TV licence

Redirect mail to your new address

Let any regular milk or food suppliers know your move date

Make sure your removal firm has all the right details about your new home

1

week before the move

Arrange for someone to look after children or pets

Tell your gas and electricity suppliers you're moving

Tell your water supplier that you are moving

Contact everyone who should know about the move.

(Your bank, credit card, pension providers, DVLA, Inland Revenue, employers, schools, electoral register and local council).

Round up the keys to your current home from friends and neighbours

Arrange a time to collect your keys to your new home from the estate agent
